DOJ/FBI MOTION TO FILE CONSOLIDATED REPLY TO OPPOSITIONS TO PETITION FOR RECONSIDERATION EXCEEDING TEN PAGES IN LENGTH

The Department of Justice/Federal Bureau of Investigation (the Department) today is filing its "DOJ/FBI Reply to Oppositions to Petition for Reconsideration of Section 105 Report and Order" in the above-captioned proceeding. This document constitutes the Department's consolidated reply to eleven (11) separate oppositions to a petition for reconsideration filed by the Department. In light of this fact, the Department believes that 47 C.F.R. § 1.429(g) clearly does not require that the Department's reply be limited to ten pages. This regulation specifies that replies to "an opposition" shall not exceed ten pages, suggesting that the Department could have filed eleven separate ten-page replies to the eleven oppositions, and the consolidated reply has only approximately one fifth as many pages as ten separate replies could include.

Out of an abundance of caution, however, the Department hereby moves to file its consolidated reply notwithstanding a contrary construction of this regulation by the Commission. The Department has used only as much space as was necessary to rebut each of the arguments raised against its reconsideration petition, and all of the information and argument included in the reply is relevant to the Commission's consideration of the important issues involved.

Respectfully submitted,
